The ballots for said election shall be provided by the Board of Supervisors of said county and be in substantially the following form:

OFFICIAL BALLOT Election May 2nd, 1916.

Precinct, Coconino County, Arizona.
Question Submitted

Shall the Board of Supervisors of Coconino County, Arizona, be authorized to create an indebtedness on behalf of the county and upon the credit thereof by issuing the bonds of the county in the aggregate amount of two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000), for the purpose of acquiring funds for the construction and reconstruction of roads and highways and for the reconstruction of bridges in said county, said bonds to bear date the first day of July, A. D. 1916, and to mature serially as follows: $7,000 in each of the years 1921 to 1955, both inclusive, and $5,000 in the year 1956, said bonds to bear interest at the rate of five (5) per cent per annum, payable semi-annually on the first day of January and the first day of July in each year.

For the Bonds
Against the Bonds

(The voter shall indicate his vote for or against the proposition submitted by placing a mark (X) in the square opposite the group of words expressing his choice).

7. The board of supervisors shall cause the ballots to be printed and distributed and shall send a sufficient number to the judges appointed in the several precincts.

8. No ballot for or against said question shall be received by the judges unless the person offering the same shall be a property tax payer of the county and also in all respects a qualified registered elector therein.

9. The returns of said election shall be submitted to the board of supervisors of Coconino County within twelve days from the date of such election; whereupon said board of supervisors shall hold a special meeting on the first Monday succeeding said 12th day for the purpose of canvassing the vote cast at said election, and they shall immediately thereafter by certificate declare the result of said election and said certificate of the result of election so made shall be prima facie evidence of the complete performance of all of the conditions and requirements precedent to the holding of such election.

10. If a majority of the property taxpayers in said county who must also in all respects be qualified electors therein voting at said election, shall vote in favor of the creation of such indebtedness and the issuance of bonds for the purpose aforesaid, it shall be the duty of the board of supervisors immediately upon canvassing the vote cast at said election as above provided, to file and record in the office of the county recorder of Coconino County, a certificate showing the object of such election, the total number of votes cast thereat, the total number of votes cast in favor of the creation of such indebtedness and the total number of votes cast against the creation of such indebtedness; and such certificate shall contain a further statement that the creation of such indebtedness is ordered and thereupon it shall immediately become the duty of such board of supervisors to take such steps as are required by law to carry out the object of such election.

11. If the indebtedness contemplated by this resolution and order shall be authorized at the election hereby called, then and in such event, the aggregate amount of said bonds to be issued under such authority shall be two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000); which bonds shall mature serially as follows: $7,000 in each of the years 1921 to 1955, both inclusive and $5,000 in the year 1956; the rate of interest to be paid thereon shall be five (5) per cent per annum; such interest shall be paid semi-annually on the first day of January and the first day of July in each year and the purpose for which the money derived from the sale of such bonds shall be expended is for the construction and reconstruction of roads and highways and for the reconstruction of bridges within and for the said county.

Said bonds, if authorized, will be made negotiable in form.

12. This resolution and order shall serve as notice of the said election, and the copies thereof posted and published as hereinafter required may be entitled "Notice of Election." The clerk of this board is hereby authorized and directed to cause to be posted at least five (5) copies of this resolution and order in public places within Coconino County, at least twelve days prior to the date of the election hereby called, and shall have posted a copy of said notice at each polling place within said county; provided that in addition to the posting of such notice, publication of a copy thereof shall be made in the Coconino Sun and the Williams News, newspapers designated by this board, being newspapers published in Coconino County, Arizona, and of general circulation therein, for at least thirty days prior to the date of the election hereby called.

13. This resolution and order shall be entered of record in the minute book of this Board and the clerk of the board is hereby authorized and directed to effectuate the various provisions thereof.

Passed and adopted this 8th day of March, A. D. 1916.

L. E. HART,
Chairman of the Board of Supervisors of Coconino County, Arizona.

Attest: TOM L. REES, Clerk.

She Grows Nervous at Nightfall
More dreaded than an alarm of fire by night is the hoarse, brassy cough of croup of the nervous mother who fears this terror of childhood. Why worry, when a few timely doses of Foley's Honey and Tar will ward off croup and clear the throat of choking phlegm. It will give you confidence to face nightfall without fear of croup.
